

In addition to his work with the WaterReuse Association, Bob was also active with many other associations and organizations, including the following: the Association of California Water Agencies, California Groundwater Association, National Groundwater Protection Council, National Water Resources Association, American Water Works Association, the California Water Education Foundation, ALERT—the California Flood Control Association, the California Association of Sanitation Agencies, American Desalting Association, Water Environment Federation, California Water Pollution Control Association, and the California WaterReuse Association. Bob's personal contributions to these organizations was also noteworthy. In recognition of his hard work, Bob was nominated in 1996 for the Athalie Richardson Irvine Clark Prize sponsored by the National Water Research Institute. To be nominated by his peers for this award is a true honor to the contributions and dedication of Bob Gross.

Although, Bob achieved significant successes through his work and involvement with the Santa Clara Valley Water District, the WaterReuse Association, the Corps of Engineers, and numerous other organizations, he also compiled an impressive record of personal and academic studies, projects, and papers on water issues. After earning a Bachelor of Science degree from San Jose State University, a Master of Sciences degree in aquaculture from Nova College International Campus, and a Doctor of Philosophy in Environmental and Water Engineering from Nova College Europe, Bob served as an advisor for fifteen years to the Board of Fellows at the University of Santa Clara, and was an adjunct faculty member at Fareslston and Nova College. Bob has conducted studies on the impact of human pollution on water supplies and wildlife habitat, and he issued a summary paper on the ecological engineering multipurpose facility. On water purification issues, Bob wrote summary papers on recycling wastewater for potable use in San Jose, the reorganization of Santa Clara Valley Water District, and finally on a merger of all water producing agencies.

And, in addition to all of his many years of hard work, service and commitment to water issues, Bob has also been honored in other areas as well. Perhaps most notably, Bob was the recipient of the Commendation Ribbon with Pendant from the Secretary of the Army for Meritorious Service in Korea. Bob has also long been a supporter of the Boy Scouts of America, serving as a member of the Board of Directors and District Chairperson. In recognition of his tremendous accomplishments and service to the Boy Scouts of America, Bob was awarded the Silver Beaver Award, one of Scouting's highest honors.

Bob Gross has posted an exceptional record of achievement and success. He has served his country and his community tirelessly for many years. It is, Mr. Speaker, truly a privilege to recognize Robert Gross for the outstanding contributions that he has made to the Santa Clara Valley Water District and the people of Santa Clara County. I am grateful for his service and wish him all the best in his well-deserved retirement.

TRIBUTE IN MEMORY OF FORMER CONGRESSMAN HENRY B. GON- ZALEZ

SPEECH OF

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 5, 2000

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor a remarkable man and true American patriot, former Congressman Henry B. Gonzalez. He passed away on November 28, 2000 at the age of 84, after 37 years of dedicated service in the House of Representatives.

"Henry B," as his friends affectionately called him, was first elected to Congress in 1961, becoming the first person of Mexican-American heritage to represent Texas in the House. A well-known champion of the poor and the downtrodden, Henry B. fiercely defended his principles and was unafraid to stand up against the powerful from the moment he was sworn into office. To this day, his constituents in San Antonio and thousands of people across the country continue to reap the benefits of this courageous fight for safe and affordable housing.

An unabashed pioneer for populism, Henry B. was perhaps best known for his prominent position on the Banking Committee, and its Chairman for three terms. He used his leadership role on the committee to help repair the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., monitor the activities of the Federal Reserve System and pass numerous pieces of legislation aimed at cleaning up the savings and loan scandal.

Henry B. began his legendary political career shortly after his admirable service in World War II, when he was elected to the San Antonio City Council. In 1957, he reached the Texas Senate where he made a name for himself with a 22-hour filibuster to block legislation that would have reinforced school segregation policies. Henry B.'s reputation as a staunch defender of civil rights stayed with him throughout his career in the House, spanning nearly four decades.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my fellow colleagues to join me today in remembering the Honorable Henry B. Gonzalez. Henry B. truly set a standard by which all Members of Congress can be measured, and he will be sorely missed by everyone in this body who had the pleasure of working with him. His honor, his vision, and his passion for equality will live forever in the hearts of all those whom he touched. I would also like to take this opportunity to extend my heartfelt condolences to Representative CHARLIE GONZALEZ and his family during this extremely difficult time.

TRIBUTE TO MS. YVONNE A. GRIFFIN

HON. BARBARA LEE

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 7, 2000

Ms. LEE. Mr. Speaker, today I pay tribute to an outstanding federal government employee, Ms. Yvonne A. Griffin. On January 4, 2001, Ms. Griffin will retire from the United States General Services Administration after a distinguished 28 year career marked by dedication, commitment to service and a superb work ethic.

A native of San Francisco, Yvonne began her government service in April 1971, as an "intermittent" GS-4 clerk-Steno for the General Services Administration's Space Management Division. In 1975 she began working in GSA's Federal Supply Service where she served as a Secretary, Administrative Assistant and Administrative Officer to the Regional Commissioner.

Yvonne joined the Public Buildings Service in 1980 as a Program Analyst. In 1984, she made an important career move to the field of Property Management. She served as the Property Manager in Reno, Nevada where she worked until 1987. In April 1987, Yvonne came to Oakland, California as the East Bay Property Manager. Housed in leased space at 1333 Broadway in Downtown Oakland, Yvonne and her staff were responsible for numerous federal properties, including the Alameda Federal Center, the U.S. Geological Survey complex in Menlo Park, the United States Court of Appeals in San Francisco, the San Jose Federal Building and the John F. Shea Federal Building in Santa Rosa. More importantly, she was actively involved in the construction of what was to become the Ronald V. Dellums Federal Building and has served as Senior Property Manager to the present day.

In architectural terms, buildings are said to have "footprints"—the physical outline of the ground they cover. Since its opening in 1993, the Ronald V. Dellums Federal Building has had a "footprint": covering far more than physical space. Thanks to Yvonne, the building's footprint has extended to the East Bay community at large. "1301 Clay Street" is an address that has come to represent a spectacular gathering place always open to people of diverse philosophies. Following Yvonne's lead, the GSA staff have focused on making the people who, in fact, own this exquisite structure feel welcome and respected.

Under Yvonne's management, the Ronald V. Dellums Federal Building, has won numerous awards, the most prestigious being the 1997-98 Building Owners and Managers Association International Government Building of the Year, and the 2000 Energy Star Designation.

The daughter of French immigrants, Yvonne inherited both an affinity for hard work and a devotion to family. Her daughters, Michelle and Suzanne Griffin, and her grandsons McKinley and Cameron Parker, are the stars in her life's constellation. As she ends her federal career, she takes with her our appreciation, respect and warmest best wishes for a happy retirement with those she loves.

TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE VICENTE CEPEDA BERNARDO, MAYOR OF YONA

HON. ROBERT A. UNDERWOOD

OF GUAM

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 7, 2000

Mr. UNDERWOOD. Mr. Speaker, as elected public officials, we know the hard work and the personal sacrifices it takes to earn the trust and mandate of our constituencies. In my home island of Guam, there are no elected officials who are closer to their constituencies,
